

Lindsey Benedict Bio

Lindsey Benedict is a Nashville based singer, known for her versatile voice and adventurous repertoire, which spans such genres as jazz, blues and gospel. A thoroughly engaging and polished performer, Lindsey has captivated audiences time and again with her soaring range, vocal agility and jazzy blues tone. Her current release, Jazz is Heaven, is firmly planted in the big band jazz tradition, yet delivers a fresh and current jazz sound all her own. Also a ballroom dancer, Lindsey incorporates dance features and lessons into her concerts making each performance an unforgettable experience, perfect for variety of venues and events.

Lindsey has performed on many stages such as Disney's Night of Joy, BB King's Blues Club and Birdland Jazz in NYC. She has performed with numerous artists such as Keb Mo, Al Denson, Denver Bierman and Dallas Holm and opened for Scotty Barnhardt of the Count Basie Orchestra. She has also performed an original song for the former Archbishop of Canterbury, Reverend George Carrey. Lindsey, also a songwriter, has released two CCM albums with three songs reaching top ten in the Gospel Music Association Songwriting Competition. Lindsey has won several vocal competitions including the Tallahassee X Factor in 2010.

Lindsey is also a worship leader and currently serves as a board member for the Experience Conference, an annual worship conference held at Disney's Contemporary Resort and also in Dallas, TX where she leads worship and teaches workshops. Additionally, she is the producer and performer for Music City Song, a Nashville Songwriter's Showcase.

Lindsey provides high quality voice instruction and performance coaching to students of all ages and musical pursuits. She is currently teaching lessons at her home studio in Smyrna, TN where she also hosts a summer camp for girls called The Nashville Experience.

Always a charismatic and creative performer, Lindsey's expertise shines as she delivers a memorable and passionate performance.
